Sun brings people

People bring themselves to the woods

She took the phonecall out. She broke up in the woods. Yelling at eachither over the phone. She doesn't want to be on his terms anymore.

Omg, by the time i got back from my tour the brake up wimen was still there. Not in the woods anymore, but there, in the park. She has a white cap with fur at the tipp and a plastic bag. Blonde and not exactly thin. By now it was only the voice of a male voice-mail coming out of the phone.

She said i probably cannot get pregnant cause i'm too skinny. Out.out of my life with this people.

#negativebitch (make insta post about it, ask mih &roberta)

she said I am 'too skinny to get preagnant anyway'...

on the verge of this whole woman's day, let us be reminded that treating others with respect is the most important thing. Let us be reminded that words are not just words, but that they reveal our system of thoughts and beliefs, and if we go deeper in language, we will see that this systems of thought and beliefs won't even represent our own thoughts and beliefs, but that they are connected to hegemonial structures of power, and we have to be conscious that when we don't choose our words carefully and are aiming to hurt the other, we are reinforcing this systems of opression, through language. #negativebitch #goread #wtfgirl #beafeminist #girlreally #omg #ucannotfuckingsaythat #bitchreally #thersalimittoyourlove #dontbeignorant #girlplease
